(Broken Arrow, OK) – Wheeler’s most recent professional accolades include successfully graduating from the Oklahoma Bankers Association (OBA) Emerging Leaders program in 2019, a program focused on engaging bank leaders in the process of dealing with issues facing the banking industry and the increased ability to serve and advocate for our customers. Upon completion of the OBA Intermediate School of Banking, Wheeler represented AVB in the multi-year Graduate School of Banking in Colorado (GSBC), graduating summer of 2024.

Through her participation in both Leadership Broken Arrow (Class of 2017) and Leadership Tulsa (Class 62), Wheeler has actively explored the communities where she lives and works and how she can make a difference and positive impact. Wheeler is a passionate advocate and supporter of the Broken Arrow Chamber of Commerce (BACC) and has previously served as a multi-year Ambassador, Ambassador Chair, Total Resource Campaign leader and Miss Rooster Days and Miss Chick Pageant Chair. She was honored by the BACC in 2019 as Volunteer of the Year and in 2023 as the Total Resource Campaign Top Performer for Increased Sales. In addition, she earned her Certified Treasury Management Certification in 2022.

Wheeler is currently serving her second term on the Tulsa Zoo Board of Directors and is a founding member of Forward Networking Broken Arrow.

She is a Broken Arrow High School (BAHS) and Oklahoma State University (OSU) alum.
